Respected blues diva who can move from a raucous blues melody to a poetic ballad sung to perfection with her finely tuned voice which just gets better and better with time. A veteran of the clubs and concert halls who puts her all into her performances, she is always on our list of artists to invite back.

DAVID FRANCEY

SATURDAY, JANUARY 17 $15

David Francey is the hot new singer of the year. Leaping from near obscurity as a part-time musician, part-time carpenter in Canada, Francey's modern ballads with a traditional sound have fired the fancy of listeners all over North America and earned him the 2002 JUNO award for best solo traditional artist. Smart, incisive, tender, authentic. Opening act Steve Brennan will complement Francey nicely both in style and voice quality.

TONY BIRD

A powerful young singer with relaxed confidence and rootsy soulfulness, she is also the recipient of several songwriting awards. A great example of the brilliant folk rock sound emerging from the younger generation.

Yes, she promised she would be here. She apologizes to all of you for not being able to pass up touring with Richard Thompson in Europe last year around this time.
