

New Moon Coffee House

DAVID MASSENGILL

November 19
$15, 8 pm

David's performances evoke the flavor of the South with his dulcimer playing, soft-edged vocal style and sharp social commentary. He weaves a musical tapestry that is truly unique and captivates audiences with stories, real and imagined, spoken and sung.
The beautiful voice of Diane Taraz opens the evening.

New addition!

THE NIELDS

February 4
$15, 8 pm

This show will lift your spirits. "When the act is on tour, four different people will come up and say something along the lines of 'I always leave a Nields show happy.' ... What else are we going to do with our lives?" muses Katryna. The quirky, emotive songs of Nerissa and Katryna Nields challenge the mind as they touch the heart. Nerissa's brainy songwriting surges to life in Katryna's volcanic vocals which are tethered to earth by Nerissa's tawny, rich harmonies. Come enjoy the songs and banter of the sisters.

MARK ERELLI

March 18
$15, 8 pm

An optimist with a social conscience. Your fingers will be snapping, face smiling and mind working. Shielded by western swing's clever wordplay, Erelli gets personal without hitting you over the head with what's wrong. "All you need's a simple song, three chords and the truth, like Hank and Woody, Townes and Jimmie Rodgers used to do, oh Lord I'm bound to ramble with the troubadour blues." There's certainly some Austin in this Boston musician. But there's always contemporary sensibility mixed with the fun, contagious twang.

CLIFF EBERHARDT

April 15
$15, 8 pm

Extraordinary guitar playing, profound lyrics, and a penetrating, raspy voice—Eberhardt has it all. He started his career in NYC but is now known all over the country. His performances are witty, self-assured, articulate, and soulful. He's been called the "missing link between Paul McCartney and Cole Porter." Come hear his great melodies and find yourself and your world in his songs.

GUY DAVIS

May 20
$15, 8 pm

He's a musician, composer, actor, director, and writer. But most importantly, Guy Davis is a 'Bluesman'. The blues permeates every corner of Davis' creativity. And he delivers 100% pure blues. Whether he's appearing on "Late Night With Conan O'Brien" or David Dye's "World Caf " radio program, in front of 15,000 people on the Main Stage at the famed Winnipeg Folk Festival, or at an intimate gathering, Guy gives each listener his 'all'.

The New Moon Coffeehouse is located in the Universalist Unitarian Church, 16 Ashland St. Haverhill MA. 01830. Tickets are available at the door, or in advance at area music retailers. Visit www.newmooncoffeehouse.org for more information.