

New Moon Coffee House

06-07

COSY SHERIDAN

October 21
$15, 8 pm

Cosy's has performed her wryly insightful songs everywhere from Carnegie Hall to NPR's 'Car Talk'. She's candid, compassionate, often comical, and always very smart. Her live performances move seamlessly from satirical cultural observations to emotional explorations of family relationships, all with a mastery of pacing and sophisticated guitar work. Entertaining songwriter TR Ritchie will start the evening off right.

KEVIN SO

November 18
$15, 8 pm

One of the most exciting and powerful singer/songwriters to emerge from the Boston music scene. So's songs span all genres of music; from folk to jazz, pop to blues, with some hip hop thrown in. His energetic, foot stomping performances draw listeners in, and his lyrical truths and intense storytelling keep them engaged.

Opening act: Carl Cacho and My True Shadow. Local singer/songwriter will share his latest original songs and wonderful harmonies.

New Addition!

CHERYL WHEELER

January 27
$20, 8 pm

There is no better performer than Cheryl Wheeler. She's a hysterically funny comic one minute, a soulful, intellectual ballad singer the next. The roller coaster performance is so much fun! The sharp tongued comic and the achingly honest poet seamlessly perform together. Don't miss this show; Cheryl will warm your soul, lift your spirits, and leave you laughing all the way home.

THE KENNEDYS

March 17
$15, 8 pm

Since their start in the early '90's with Nanci Griffith's band, Maura and Pete have been charming audiences with their exuberant mixture of folk, rock, country, pop and their own brand of secular gospel. No doubt the couple savors each instance in life. There's a philosophical depth in their lyrics, and joyful, kinetic amazing guitar work. Their vibrant performances provide the irresistible combination of ear candy and brain food.

Double Bill

DENICE FRANKE and JEFF BLACK

April 21
$15, 8 pm

He's a burly, bare-knuckled, blue-collar son of the Missouri plains with dark Irish blood who digs into tough topics with a gentle heart. There's nothing predictable about a Jeff Black lyric other than it will be sung robustly and it will head towards hope instead of dwell on despair.

Denice Franke is one of the best singer/songwriters Texas has to offer. Her gorgeous, sweet, full voice pulls listeners into the characters she develops and the intimate moments she reveals. Franke's phenomenal performance style, wit, and fluid voice are comfort food for the soul.

The New Moon Coffeehouse is located in the Universalist Unitarian Church, 16 Ashland St. Haverhill MA. 01830. Tickets are available at the door. Tickets may also be reserved prior to the show by calling 978-459-5134 or through our website at www.newmooncoffeehouse.org